ProMutual Group Welcomes New Risk Management Consultant Diane Corjulo

New Hire Adds to the Company's Award-Winning Risk Management Team

Boston, MA (February 10, 2010) – ProMutual Group, a leading provider of medical liability insurance, is pleased to announce that Diane Corjulo, R.N., has joined its risk management department. In her role as a risk management consultant, Corjulo will bring the benefit of 27 years of experience to ProMutual Group and its policyholders.

"I am excited to be joining ProMutual Group and its risk management team," said Corjulo. "I look forward to continuing the organization's work in Connecticut and sharing my experiences and knowledge to help policyholders in all specialties minimize their risk."

Like all of ProMutual Group's risk management consultants, Corjulo's background is as a registered nurse. Corjulo has broad acute care hospital experience and more recently, physician office practice expertise. She has worked at Yale-New Haven Medical Center and the Hospital of St. Raphael in New Haven, Conn., and as a traveling nurse. Her most recent position was chief operating officer for an active hematology-oncology practice with nine locations and 23 physicians.

"Diane's background and leadership in both hospital and large private practices will help us to identify more ways to assist policyholders and improve patient safety," said Anne Huben-Kearney, vice president of risk management for ProMutual Group. "She is a very welcome addition to our team."

Diane is a nursing graduate from the University of Rhode Island and resides in Southington, Conn.
