ProMutual Group Names Katharine Gould Public Relations Specialist

Boston, MA (December 28, 2010) – ProMutual Group, a leading provider of medical professional liability insurance, recently added Katharine Gould as public relations specialist in the Marketing Department. Katharine will assist with public relations activities including writing, researching and responding to media inquiries. She will also serve as a contact for media and society representatives throughout the company's states of operation.

"We are excited to have Katharine join our marketing and communications team," said Michael Kubik, vice president of marketing for ProMutual Group. "Katharine will be an important asset as we expand our presence as one of the leading providers of medical professional liability insurance in the country. Her experience will help us navigate through times of change in our industry."

A graduate of Union College in Schenectady, New York, Katharine comes to ProMutual Group with three years of experience in public relations and marketing. Most recently, Katharine served as an account executive at a public relations agency in Saratoga Springs, New York.

Katharine is a native of Wellesley, Massachusetts and now resides in the Boston area.
